

Mauritius Meteorological Services

Mean Rainfall for 16-30 September 2019

Mauritius

The second fortnight of September 2019 received normal rainfall amounting to 50mm, representing 104% of the long term mean for this period. Some regions in the North-Eastern part had deficient rainfall of up to 30 mm whereas excess rainfall of above 30mm was observed in the regions of Plaisance, Vacoas Grand Providence and Sans Souci.

Observed Rainfall(mm)

Rainfall Anomaly (mm)

Outer Islands

		Amount (mm)
	Stations	Actual Mean Rainfall	LTM Rainfall	% of LTM
Rodrigues	Pointe Canon	21	26	81
	Plaine Corail	18	30	60
	Citronelle	24	48	50
	Agalega	48	22	218
	St Brandon	22	15	147

St.Brandon received above normal rainfall for this period. At Agalega, it was very wet with over 200% of LTM rainfall.

Rodrigues had below normal rainfall representing 64% of the long term mean for

Ram Dhurmea

For Director

14 October 2019