

Mauritius Meteorological Services

Mean Rainfall for 1-15 June 2022

Mauritius

The first fortnight of June 2022 turned out to be very wet with 106 mm of rainfall, representing 183 % of the long-term mean. Rainfall was locally in excess by 110-120 mm in the region of Sans Souci, Arnaud and Bois Cheri. However, locally in the region of Pierrefonds, Tamarin Estate and Ferret, it was deficient by 4-10 mm.

Observed Rainfall (mm)

Rainfall Anomaly (mm)

Outer Islands

		Amount (mm)
Stations		Actual Rainfall	LTM Rainfall	% of LTM
Rodrigues	Pointe Canon	41	33	124
	Plaine Corail	24	32	75
	Citronelle	55	51	108
Agalega		111	60	185
St Brandon		11	24	46

Near Normal rainfall was recorded over Rodrigues.

Very wet conditions prevailed over Agalega whereas dry condition were observed over St. Brandon

Ram Dhurmea

For Acting Director

20 June 2022